

Pauline Clark Ellett

December 17, 1915 - December 27, 2011

Pauline Clark Ellett, was born on December 17, 1915, as the second of three girls born to Maud Clark Bostic, in Halifax County, Virginia. At an early age, she and her family moved to Richmond.

A graduate of Armstrong High School and Van de Vyver Business School, Pauline continued her education at RPI (Virginia Commonwealth University) and Virginia Union University. She was always enrolled in enrichment programs which she enjoyed.

At an early age, she joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia where she became a loyal and faithful member. She joined the Estereen Bible Class and held the position of class teacher for years, and president of the missionary.

Pauline wore many hats during her life. She held many occupations, always working two or three jobs at a time. Her most passionate, as many may remember, was as a World Book Encyclopedia sales person. She retired after many years of service from the City of Richmond as a Food Stamp Clerk.

She led a full and active life. Pauline was always involved in community activities including holding office in the PTAs during our education; a Girl Scouts Leader, and later as East End Neighborhood Chairman.

Always leading and extending assistance to those in need, our mother never met a stranger. It was always mind boggling to us how she managed to work two jobs, attend her activities and be a great mother. She kept us busy shuttling off to ballet, tap, church, piano, camp and other activities too numerous to mention. But, she never complained.

We are so fortunate to have had her in our lives for so many years and we feel empty without her. Because of the wonderful love she shared, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts.

Left to cherish her memory are two daughters, Sandra (Jasper Lewis) and Cheryl Ellett; one granddaughter, Daria (Spencer Page); two great-grandchildren, Julia and Tobias; one nephew, Norbert E. Fields; two nieces, Doris F. Lee and Maria F. Henderson; grand-nieces and nephews; other relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

St. James Baptist Church Cemetery

2169 New Market Rd.
Henrico, VA

Previous Events

Public Viewing

DEC 30. 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Home-Laburnum Chapel
Richmond, VA 23222

Service

DEC 31. 11:00 AM (ET)

Mount Calvary Baptist Church
4401 Hobbs Lane
Richmond, VA 23231

Tribute Wall

“ Pauline Clark Ellett

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - January 02, 2012 at 04:34 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - December 29, 2011 at 12:56 PM