

Pauline Bagby Gentry

September 4, 1949 - September 8, 2012

Pauline Marie Bagby Gentry, affectionally know as "Fatsie" was the second child born to Marie Bagby and the late Isaiah Bagby, Sr. on September 4, 1949 in Henrico County, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her sister, Yvonne Brown.

She attended Henrico Public Schools.

Pauline accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized into the fellowship of the Gravel Hill Baptist Church where she was a faithful member until her health began to fail.

She worked several different jobs over the years to name a few; Virginia Garment, The Airport, The Federal Building and A.H. Robins. Pauline made many friends along the way and left a lasting impression. She was always the jokester and getting the last word in. If you ask anyone here they would have a special story to tell about her.

Pauline loved cooking and would share her knowledge to anyone that would call to ask her how to fix a particular dish.

Her favorite thing to do was watching the cooking channel, old westerns; the game show network and striking a bargain at yard sales until she could not go anymore. She loved Christmas, it was her favorite time of the year. Pauline was excited putting up the tree and wrapping presents, starting at Thanksgiving.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted son, Lawrence Gentry (Shelby); two grandchildren, Shayla and Trevon Gentry; mother, Marie Bagby; two sisters, Elaine Robinson (Clarence) and Diane Tuppence (James); two brothers, Isaiah Jr. (Janice) and James Bagby (Rose); two god-children, Aleah Brown and LaTasha Kenney; a devoted and loving friend, Lawrence Christian; three devoted nieces, Thelma Brown, Roshell and Valerie Powell; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.

“Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiastes 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”
