

Pauline Lorrette McClure

July 30, 1950 - May 18, 2015

Pauline “Sweet Pea” McClure, the loving mother of five children, was born July 30, 1950, in Richmond, Virginia. She was the oldest of five children. She departed this life on May 18, 2015, in the comfort of her home. Although Pauline “Sweet Pea” McClure never married, her legacy will continue through the bloodline of her five beautiful children, thirteen grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren.

A native of the West End/Newtown area, Pauline “Sweet Pea” McClure was considered one of the many cornerstones within Jackson Ward community. She briefly worked for Medical College of Virginia at an early age as a domestic engineer.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Jamice McClure-Barnes; father, Ivory T. McClure, and sister, Marcita McClure. She leaves to cherish her memory; four daughters, Janice and Jeannettea McClure, Montese Anderson, and Melody Brown (Timothy), one son, James Randolph, a devoted son-in-law, Jerome Anderson, and one devoted lifelong friend, Veronica Smith; a nurturing mother, Mary Randolph, biological mother, Pauline H. McDaniel, four sisters, Roxanne McDonald, Janesina Randolph, Carolyn Robinson, Melody Randolph, two brothers Theodore and Ivory McClure; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May your many fine memories of your loved one bring you comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the “God of all comfort” and if you allow him to do so, he can and will help you through this difficult period because “he cares for you” and all those who are brokenhearted. (1 Peter 5:7)

K. Nichols - May 21, 2015 at 11:41 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
