

Pauline Mears

January 1, 1921 - October 3, 2008

PAULINE V. MEARS, daughter of the late Harry Parker and Lillie Parker Sewell, was born on January 1, 1921 in Snow Hill, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 3, 2008 after a lengthy illness. Pauline received her education in the public schools of North Carolina. As a young woman, she relocated to Baltimore. She was employed at Glen L. Martin for almost twenty years. She later worked at Camp Manufacturing on the assembly line. After ten years, Pauline sought a new career path and worked as a receptionist at DePaul House. She was joined in matrimony to the late Moddie E. Mears in 1943. Pauline received Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She was a faithful and lifelong member of Union Baptist Church. Pauline was well known for her stylish dressing, her love of shopping and her immaculate home. She was an outstanding homemaker who loved to cook, feed and entertain family and friends. She leaves to mourn her passing and celebrate her life her brother Sylvester Taylor, sister-in-law Bernice Parker and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
