

Pauline Bazemore Williams

January 25, 1940 - February 2, 2022

PAULINE WILLIAMS was born January 25, 1940 in North Carolina to the late John and Katherine Bazemore. She was called home on Wednesday, February 2, 2022.

Pauline grew up in Aulander, North Carolina on a farm with her big family. She later attended John B. Bond High School and graduated in 1958.

In the early 1960's she moved to Baltimore where she later met Philip Williams, Jr., and they married on February 4, 1966.

Pauline went on to work at Bonnie Blink (Maryland Masonic Homes) nursing home in housekeeping where she made numerous friends. Then she moved on to work at Keswick Nursing Home where she remained until she retired. She enjoyed cooking, watching old tv shows, gardening and shopping with her sister-in-law Mable and spending time with family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband Philip Williams, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Curtis and Brian; daughter-in-law, Rachelle (Curtis) and daughter-in-law to be Nicole (Brian); her sisters, Erma Ford and Elnaray Martin and grandson, great grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and host of other family members and friends.
