

Pearl Brown

April 10, 1923 - December 16, 2003

On April 10, 1923, two tiny footprints were added to the sands of life. On that day in Warrenton, North Carolina, the Lord blessed the late John Watson and Lillian Towne with an angel daughter named Pearl. Pearl was one of eleven siblings. Unknowingly to all of us that she would touch our lives, reach deeply into our souls, and leave each of us with memories too rich to ever forget. Pearl, affectionately known as “Sweetie” to all that loved her, accepted Christ at an early age. She was a long standing and faithful member at St. John Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Ollie Flemming. In her later years, illness prevented her from attending weekly fellowship services. Pearl was kind and loving. She very often spoke her mind and was loved by everyone. She enjoyed music, dancing and clapping hands. Her favorite color was red. Pearl was very particular about having her hair done all the time (smile). In 1941 she married Thomas R. Brown. From this union, six children were born. Four daughters and two sons. On December 16, 2003, Pearl departed this life at the age of 80 and joined in heaven her ten siblings: Francis, Rosa, Lula, Mariah, John, Bertha, Sam, Lillie, Sally, and baby brother (a.k.a. “T-Boy”); one son, Thomas R. Brown, Jr.; one granddaughter, Lisa Davis; one grandson, Michael A. Brown. Thirteen great-grandchildren, Gilea, Malcon, Asia, Kesha, Kristopher, Brandon, Ashli, Jazmyn, Darryl, NaReesha, Jalan, Nathan and Lakesha. Granddaughter-in-law, Yvette, Patricia and Colleen; sons-in-law, Will, Sonny, Darnell and countless number of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and loving life-long friends. Pearl will be greatly missed by all her family, friends, and will live forever in our hearts.
