On January 25, 1915, PEARL PAULINE COZART (who was affectionately called Ma Ma), daughter of Sarah Hudson and James Howell, was born in Winston Salem, North Carolina. She departed this life on April 14, 2006. Pearl received her education at Columbia Heights Elementary and Atkins High Schools in Winston Salem, North Carolina. She moved to Baltimore in the early fifties and later married the late Robert Cozart. Pearl was employed at the former Mt. Wilson Hospital and the Maryland Penitentiary. She retired from the Maryland Penitentiary in January, 1986 to care for her ailing daughter. Pearl was blessed with three loving children. One son and two daughters preceded her in death, Marian Pauline (Snooky) Thornton, and Sara Ann Meadows. A daughter-in-law, Rhetta Howell also preceded her in death. She became a member of the Concord Baptist Church on June 6, 1982 under the leadership of Rev. Matthew R. Silver. She was a well loved person and everyone enjoyed being around her. She was very outgoing. Pearl loved to cook, organize family functions, bowling and many other sports. She loved being around her family and friends. She was a nurturer and someone you could easily talk to about any and everything. She was very optimistic and strong willed. Pearl was a very gracious woman who will be forever missed. To know her was to love her. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, William Albert Howell; her four adopted daughters, Lucille Harp, Grazette Rahming, Cathy Coles, and Brenda Briscoe; one son-in-law, William Meadows; a host of grandchildren, and great grandchildren, one great-great

“ To the family of Mrs. Cozart I offer my sincere sympathy. May the scriptureal thought at Acts 24:15 bring peace and comfort to your hearts. It says, "For I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So all in Jehovah"s memory will have an opportunity to live again in peaceful conditions. All of this sadness due to violence, wars, poverty, sickness and death will one day be erased from our minds forever.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Cor. 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
