

Pearl Christine Davis

September 5, 1946 - December 2, 2013

Pearl C. Davis was born September 5, 1946 to the late James and Aretha White. She accepted Christ and was baptized early in life at Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Sandston, VA. She was a hardworking and faithful member until her health began to decline.

She attended Virginia Randolph High School, where she was an excellent student. She furthered her education at Virginia State University, where she received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology. While attending VSU, she met her love, John W. Davis. They were married on October 30, 1970.

After graduating VSU, she began her career working for the City of Richmond and retired after 33 years of service as a Social Worker. She touched the lives of many during her tenure there.

Pearl leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband, John, two children, Sherri and Michael, brothers, James R. White of Martinsville, VA. and Joseph N. White (Cassandra) of Chesterfield, VA. nieces; Lesly Hitnariansingh (Greg) Jonesha White (George); nephew, Joseph N. White, Jr.

On May 7th, she was blessed with the apple of her eye, Michael Jr., her very 1st grandchild.

She is also survived by aunts, Naomi White, Laura Thompson, Elizabeth Mitchell, Vernon Thaniel, Vernell Cary (James), Alma James, Vernice Thaniel; uncle, John Thaniel (Ruth) and a host of cousins and friends.

"Cookie" was a very important part of our family. She was our rock, and she will be greatly missed.
