

Pearl Harbor Foster

March 5, 1943 - October 29, 2014

“For His anger endureth but a moment in his favor is life, but weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning”
—Psalms 30:5

Mr. Pearl Harbor Foster was born March 5, 1943, to the late William, and Lillie Mae Foster in Blackstock, South Carolina. Pearl was born one of ten children. On October 29, 2014 after a lengthy illness Pearl just slipped away quietly surrounded by family, and the comfort of his home.

Pearl received his education through Chester County public school system in South Carolina. He was employed for 30 years at Lord Baltimore dry cleaners as a "Stainmaster" where he retired in the year of 2000. After retirement he decided to work part time where he gained employment at McCormick Spice Company in Hunt Valley, Maryland as a custodian. Pearl was loved and known as Grandpoppy by his four grandchildren. He was also known for his delicious collard greens which the grandchildren called "Grandpoppy greens".

Pearl took enjoyment preparing yearly Christmas dinners for his family. He will truly be missed by everybody.

He leaves to mourn a special friend of twenty years Clementine Epps; two daughters, Shavette Dennis (Lamont Dennis Sr.) of Baltimore MD and Denisa Foster also of Baltimore MD; one son, Curtis Foster (Delia Foster) of York, PA.; a stepson, Reginald of Baltimore, MD; grandchildren, Charden E. Carter, Lamont Dennis Jr., and Shanyah, Jayden Foster, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He has one surviving sister, Ernestine Stevenson. He was preceded in death by four sisters and four brothers, and two sisters-in-law.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.

In our hearts you hold a place that no one can ever fill.

“ Pearl Harbor Foster

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To The Foster/Morris Families:

We were truly saddened to hear of Pearl's death. He was very much loved for his kindness shown, his beautiful smile, and just down to earth warmth, displayed each time we were together. He will certainly be missed by all, who came in contact with him.

Our prayers are being conveyed to my first cousin, Clemmintine and the entire Foster Family.

May God bestow his everlasting love to all of you to help you tunnel through this difficult time. Sorry that we are unable to be with you, but you will always be in our thoughts and prayers.

Love, Joyce & Timothy Benjamin, Greenville, N.C. 27858

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are never alone. Turn to the Holy Scriptures for guidance and to help soothe your heart. Psalms 34:18 assures us that God is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. Please accept my deepest sympathies.
