

Pearl C. Houston

April 11, 1945 - June 30, 2014

PEARL C. CLARK HOUSTON, daughter of the late Clarence and Pearl Clark, was born on April 11, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed this life on June 30, 2014 after a short illness. Pearl received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a devoted housewife and a loving mother. "Family" was Pearl's pride and joy and she loved spending time with them. She was a kind, sweet, simple woman who never complained or asked for much. Pearl talked but she never talked too much. She felt that some things just didn't need to be said. However, if you got out of line, she would put you in your place. Pearl, affectionately known as "Grannie" or "Catherine", was an excellent seamstress. She would sew all her clothes by hand and they'd look as if she used a sewing machine. Catherine loved to eat, but she was very particular about who's food she ate. She loved her daughter Michelle's cooking and her favorite dish was salmon cakes, fried potatoes and stewed tomatoes. She especially loved to go all "you can eat" restaurants with her family her favorite was Cactus Willies. Catherine also enjoyed listening to music. Jackie Wilson was one of her most like performers. Catherine lived her life to the fullest. The legacy of her kind and gentle spirit will live on through her family. She is preceded in death by: three sisters, Gladys Clark, Dorothy Clark and Edna Mae Green; three brothers, James Clark, Daniel Clark and Ellsworth Clark; son, Ralph E. Houston Jr.; granddaughter, Sheniah Mayes. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: sister, Bernice Welsley; brother, Clarence Clark; two daughters, Michelle Hall and Lenora Parrish; six grandchildren, Terrell Mayes, Travis Mayes, Michelle Taylor, Darius Farlon, Lenyiah Brown and Dale Vester; a host of nieces, nephews, great- nieces and great-nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ *Dear Family,
I truly sympathize with your loss, please take comfort in this Bible verse at Acts 24:15 that says, And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. I pray that you find comfort and peace and that God will give you the power you need to get through these hard times.*

“ *To the Family of Pear Houston:
I was reading about the death of your family member and I wanted to write to give you some comfort from the scriptures. The bible says at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that 'the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing.' What a comforting thought. No more death, pain, sickness, mourning nor outcry. That's what Revelation 21:4 says. And we have no doubt that God's promises will take place and soon because the bible shows that we are living in the last days and Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie. So we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again and never having to lose them again. Well I do hope these scripture have been of encouragement to you. If you have any questions or comments please email me or go to www.jw.org*

“ Please take solace in Jesus's words at John 5:28-29 where it reads in part, " Do not be amazed by this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out...". This resurrection will be to Paradise earth where death, sickness and sorrow will be a thing of the past ( Psalms 37:9-11,29, Isaiah 33:24 and Revelation 21:4 ). These are Our Heavenly Fathers, promise to those who have fallen asleep in death, and He always keeps His promises (Titus 1:2 ). May this hope bring you a great measure of peace and sooth your broken hearts. . In sympathy Mrs. D. Ward Detroit www.jw.org
