

Pearl Mae Rogers

September 21, 1921 - February 17, 2002

Pearl Mae Rogers also known as “Moms & Grannie” was born on September 21, 1921. She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel and Almetta Gales. On Sunday, February 17, 2002 after a lengthy illness, Ma Pearl departed her earthly tabernacle for her heavenly mansion. Ma Pearl was born in Dinwiddie, Va. at the age of three years old her family moved to Baltimore, Md. And was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. Later she met and married her late husband Charles Edward Rogers Sr., from this union they were blessed with five children. Ma Pearl had a very warm, gentle and caring spirit. She also was a very strong woman and gave of herself in raising all the children she possibly could. She loved the Lord and strongly believed in studying the word of God! She always had a smile for you and she would say, “Let’s study the word baby.” She was a member of Tabernacle Church of Deliverance as well as a spiritual influence to everyone that she came in contact with. She leaves to cherish her memory: five children, Charles Rogers Jr., Earl Rogers, Lorraine Edmonds, Gilbert Rogers and Allan Rogers Sr., one beloved daughter-in-law, Marva Rogers, eleven grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, one sister-in-law, Geraldine Holt, one niece, Serena Waddel; a host of other great nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
