

Pearle Mae Webb

November 1, 1921 - June 30, 2016

Pearle Mae Webb was born November 1, 1921 in Savannah, Georgia. She was reared by her mother, the late Betty Taylor and stepfather, the late Charles Taylor. She was called home June 30, 2016 to her heavenly father to the pearly gates.

She received her formal education from Girls High in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Pearle furthered her education by attending nursing school in New York, New York. At an early age, she accepted Christ and held her membership with Canaan Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she served as a Girl Scout Troop Leader for the Brownies.

Pearle was united in holy matrimony with Rev. Ercel Franklin Webb in 1941 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Their union was blessed with three children. She was employed by the Women's Medical Center in Philadelphia as an LPN. Pearle kept her license current in Pennsylvania and New York for many decades, until her retirement. In her leisure, she enjoyed crocheting, knitting, cooking, going to plays and traveling.

She was preceded in death by her two daughters, Kathleen Webb-Driver and Patricia A. Webb, and a granddaughter, Jacqueline Terri Webb-Earle. She leaves to cherish her memory, son, Charles Webb (Francis); six grandchildren, Michelle Stacy Driver-Jenkins (Daniel), Tracey Webb-Myrick, Regina Caldwell, Lavette Webb, Ronald Driver (Cassandra) and Robin Driver; eleven great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; a host of other loving extended family and friends.
