

Pearleen Johnson

July 17, 1915 - April 19, 2011

PEARLEEN JOHNSON, daughter of the late Ellabell and Clifford Reed, was born on July 17, 1915 in Blackville, South Carolina. Pearleen departed this life on April 19, 2001 due to a lengthy illness.

Pearleen was married to James Johnson, who preceded her in death, and from this union three children were born, the late James Johnson, Elease Johnson and Lou Ellen Johnson.

Pearleen received her education at Macedonia High School in Blackville, South Carolina.

Pearleen came to Baltimore, Maryland in the mid 1940s where she would make this her home and start a new life. Pearleen became a member of First Apostolic First Church. Pearleen became employed at the Packing House Company where she was a full-time employee until she retired.

Pearleen had a life-long companion, Roy Dyer who also preceded her in death and from this union three daughters were born, Arnetta Dyer, Gloria Dyer and Audrey Dyer.

Pearleen Adopted Cora Miller into her family as one of her own where she was a loving mother to her and daughters, Tammia Miller-McIntosh.

She was known by everyone as Pearl or Nosey Pearl. Should I say she knew everything about everybody (LOL). She will definitely be missed by her family and friends.

Pearl had a very fiesty and sassy way about her, she didn't take no stuff from anybody. She said what she meant and meant what she said. She always had a special way about saying what was on her mind. If you got her wrong one saying in particular, if she was mad was, “ you're in the right church, but the wrong Pew” and “Oh yeah, and I might be half dead, but I ain't scared” and she meant every word.

She touched so many lives throughout her life. She had a big heart and would help anyone. Its going to be really different not seeing her sitting on the steps or walking through Perkins looking for someone in her family, yelling their names saying, Have you seen so and so, Pearleen will truly be missed by everyone. We Love You Pearl!

Pearl leaves to mourn: five daughters, Lou Ellen Johnson, Elease Johnson, Audrey Dyer, Gloria Dyer and Tammia Miller- McIntosh; (two daughters preceded her in death, Cora Miller and Arnetta Dyer and a son, James Johnson); grandchildren, Donte Taylor, Antonio Jones, Antione Jones, Darnell Dickson, Lakisha Brown, Jermaine Lyles, Tysha Lyles, TyShay Dyer, Cierra McKeever, Tavia White, John L. Johnson, Kevin Johnson, Cynthia Johnson, Terry Johnson, Rosma Johnson-Ford, Richard Johnson, Erica Johnson, Katrina Johnson-fogg, Iesha Carswell, John Earl Johnson, and Taretha White; twenty-four great-grandchildren, twenty-seven great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other family and friends.

“ First and foremost, I have to send my deepest sympathy out to Tammy and family. Aint nothing like loosing a relative that has been in your life forever. Miss Pearl was a soldier down Perkins, I had the pleasure of finally getting to know her when I moved in Herring Ct., across from her, but actually seen her around way before then. Tammy I have to say, there was plenty of days when Mrs Pearl and that switch came around the corner together and when I seen them, I knew she was looking for you. Asking have yall seen Tammy, and me knowing you was on your way up Lafayette, I had to steer her wrong. But she was hipped to that, she knew better. She started across school #8 park and after you. They were the good old days. With that being said, again, Mrs Pearl was well known and liked by everyone that knew her as well as myself, And she never forgot a face. So I gotta say, she will be greatly missed. And for the family, you know they say god makes no mistakes, and we must thank him for lending her to us for as long as he did, just no he called home an anget...R.I.P Mrs Pearl..... Tracy Smith

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ It has been theorized that the dead know what the living is doing. And although personally I am on the fence about that concept, at this time, I hope that it is true.

Miss Pearleen, what I am doing is being thankful to have known you as a very small child and to have had the benefit of you and the other mothers of the neighborhood loving and caring for me in such a way that even when I was on the wrong track and walking down the path of destruction. The lessons that I learned from you were so powerful that they kicked back in when I needed them most.

All of the Mothers of Caroline Street contributed in some way to us all being the people that we are today. And in spite of many false starts, wrong turns and massive mistakes, I have been able to recover and have a fairly productive, successful and rewarding life. And you are truly the last original "Caroline Street Mother" that made that possible.

Thank you.

In addition, I also want to thank you for bringing Anita, Gloria Jean and Audry into the world. They all became very good friends of mines, and I still consider them to be to this day.

Although Anita passed several years ago, I have not, and never will forget her.

And I know that if it is indeed in GOD's Eternal Plan, you are with her and all of your children and loved ones as I write this.

I just wanted to say to the family, (those that I know and those that I don't know), that Miss Pearleen was truly from the "Old School", and knew that a good neighborhood was based on everyone's vigilance and contributions as a whole. And she was definitely a force that accomplished this.

Although I have not been in close contact with her lately, I have never forgot her, and enjoyed the rare occassions when I did get the chance to speak with her on the phone.

So I just want to wish the family the blessings of GOD. And may he grant you peace and understanding until the time when we all meet again..

Ms. Pearleen, in a time when the words, Family, Friend and Love are just that, empty words with no actions to back them up. I want to thank you for being a "True Friend" to my Grandmother, whom I know you loved very much.

Thank you for all that you done for each of the people who you came into contact with during your time upon this earth.

Ms Pearleen: Rest In Eternal Peace.

To the Family of Pearleen Johnson:

I want to extend my deepest sympathy to you in this time of sadness. Death is never an easy thing to deal with. When a love one dies it's as much as a part of our very being that dies and that is because we are very much connected; that can also be said for our extended family the human race. Whenever we hear or read of a loss of life many times it becomes a paralyzing thought because we can all fall victim to that enemy. Yes enemy. 1Cor 15:26 states that death is an enemy and Jesus will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death who is Satan Heb 2:14. However in Jehovah's own due time which appears to be very soon we can be confident he will by means of His son Jesus will correct all the wrong that has affected mankind down to this day. Jesus has been given the authority to resurrect the dead according to John 5:28-29 and death will be swallowed up forever Is 25:8. Yes Rev 21:4 states everything that causes pain and suffering will be no more and death will be no more. How happy we all will be when we are fully under the protective arm of Jehovah God where death will never be a threat to us, our family, our friends and people of all the nations again. Jehovah has also promised no more sickness, no one will say they are sick Is 33:24 and unrest caused by the wicked. Ps 37:9-11. So you see we have much to look forward to and this is just the tip of the iceberg. Can you imagine what life will be like benefiting from more than the tip of the iceberg? Jehovah and Jesus have marvelous plans for the living and an awe inspiring welcoming for our love ones we loss to death. Nothing can get any better than that. So I pray you keep faith and trust in Jehovah God and Christ because with them there are unlimited blessings. Remember all what Jehovah promises will come to pass. Is 55:11 and His words are true. It's impossible for Him to lie Heb 6:18. So take carriage Pearleen is in Jehovah's memory awaiting the time she too will return to see her love ones again.
