November 15, 1942 - February 27, 2006

PEARLEEN LEE ALLEN, daughter of Alma Lee and the late Rev. Van Lee, Sr., was born on November 15, 1942 in Rocky Point, NC. She departed this life on February 27, 2006. Pear made friends everywhere she went and she would help out anyone that was in need. She was a ray of light in many peoples lives, and truly will be missed in our lives as well as our hearts. Pear leaves to mourn: her mother, Alma Lee; six children, Janice, Joyce, June, Jetric, Jeffery and Julian; a special daughter, Nicole Allen; one son-in-law, six sisters, seven brothers, aunts, uncles, sisters-in-law, cousins, brothers-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren; and friends including special friend, Mr. Thomas Austin; and life-long friend, Reverend Helen Mayo.

“ To the family of Pearleen Lee Allen please except my condolences for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The bible, however, holds out a much different hope. The scriptures tells that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, not in an unknown heaven but right here on earth John 5:21,28,29 says: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out." This is a promise that is true from Jehovah God and Jesus Christ. Your Family is in my prays. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ To the family of I offer my most heartfelt condolences. It is very hard to lose a loved one, and so heartbreaking to lose a child. I know,because I too lost a son. But my hope is also in the promises of Jehovah God and Jesus; to bring our loved ones back to life in a peaceful new world. WE all long for that new world to come. Until then, my dear brothers and sisters, may we all continue to have plenty to do in the work of the Lord, knowing that our labor is not in vain in connection with the Lord." This is what would have wanted us to do. Then when we see our children again in the ressurection, we will be able to say: "Death, where is your victory? "Death, where is your sting? 1st Cor. 15:55. May our loving father, Jehovah, continue to give you the strength that you need to go on, as well as the comfort. May your memories of bring you much joy. I look forward to meeting her in the new world, as well as your family.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for the loss of your family member Pearleen. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I'm leaving you with the following scriptural text. This may comfort you. Pslams 116:15...Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is death of his loyal ones. Ecclesiastes 7:1...A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of being born. Isaiah 25:8...He will swallow up death forever, and the Soveriegn Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears for all faces. And the reproach of his people will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself as spoken it.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for the loss of Pearleen. I am sure this was a difficult time for your family. I would like to leave you with scripture that might comfort you. The scripture comes from Hebrew 4:12 and it is as follows...For the word of God is alive and exerts power and is sharper than any two-edged sword and pierces even the dividing of soul and spirt, and of joints and their marrow, and is able to discern thoughts and intentions of the heart. And there is not a creation that is not manifest to his sight, but all things are naked and openly exposed to the eyes of him with whom we have an accounting.##imported-begin##JT NUNNALLY##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. John 5:25, 28, 29. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My most heartfelt condolences to the family on the passing of your loved one. Sometimes words are not adequate during such a painful time, but the bible can be a great source of comfort at such times of sorrow. It has many accounts of people who had died, but were brought back to life by Jesus Christ. He ressurected Lazarus who had been dead for 4 days, and he even brought a 12-year old girl back to life. Imagine how her parents felt to actualy see their child restored to life right before their very eyes. In the near future, according to fulfillment of bible prophecy, all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."John 5:28,29. My prayers are with you at this most grivous time as we await the promised ressurection.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
