

Pearlie Haywood McGee

May 3, 1939 - September 12, 2006

PEARLIE HAYWOOD McGEE, son of the late James and Lillie McGee, was born on May 3, 1939 in Halifax, North Carolina. He departed his life on September 12, 2006 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He received his education in North Carolina. At a very young age he was baptized at Little Zion Baptist Church in North Carolina. He was employed at Montgomery Ward for thirty-five years and employed at the Department of Transportation for several years. His famous phrase was, "I may not be right all the time but I am never wrong." He loved to be around his family, hanging "under the bridge" with his friends, sitting on his steps listening to the ball game and talking with the neighbors. He especially loved spoiling his grandchildren who lovingly called him "Poopie." Pearlle Haywood will be sincerely missed. Pearlle Haywood leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Naomi McGee; three daughters, Tammy Walters, Bonnie Williams and Bridget Walters of Illinois (one son, James McGee, preceded him in death); two sons-in-law, Richard Williams and Gary Walters of Ill.; two granddaughters, Sherna Walters and Natasha Williams; one grandson, James Walters Jr.; six sisters, Mae Francis, Eartie Foreman, Barbara Savage of New York, Lillie Marie Johnson and Mary Beth Mallory of North Carolina and Phyllis Johnson; two brothers, Fred McGee of New York, Lewis McGee of North Carolina and Randolph Williams of California; one aunt, Mable Hart; three brothers-in-law; one goddaughter, Jacqueline Wilson; and one godson, Russell Wilson; devoted "under the bridge" friends, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in the hope of the resurrection at Isa 26:19 which say, "your dead ones will live... they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated this with the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. Knowing this about Almighty God gives us comfort and shows just how much he truly cares for us.###imported-begin##Mrs. Howard###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
