

Pearlie Mae Patricia Kirby

May 10, 1959 - March 15, 2010

On Monday, March 15, 2010, as God was walking through His flower garden, He saw a beautiful rose names Patricia and decided to take her home to fragrant His throne. PEARLIE MAE PATRICIA KIRBY was born on May 10, 1959 to the late Robert Kirby and Sadie Mae Robinson in Cheraw, South Carolina. At an early age, Patricia joined the Robinson A.M.E. Zion Baptist Church where she was baptized. While growing up, Patricia and her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland to make it their home. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Patterson High School. After graduating from high school, she was employed at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. While working there, she met Willie Faulkner, the love of her life. She loved him like she loved the icing on her butterscotch krimpets. They were inseparable and they loved to shop together. You could often find her at the Family Dollar and Walmart stores with Willie trailing behind the shopping cart. Patricia would be filling the cart with all kinds of nic nacs and bric-a-bracs for the home. Patricia loved to go the Build-A-Bear store. She made the most beautiful little bears and clothed them all with unique outfits that matched their personalities. Her favorite pastimes included cooking, cleaning and telling jokes that only she would laugh at!. She loved her daughter and grandchildren. A day would never pass without talking to them on the phone for extremely long periods of time. She was a chatty patty! To know Patricia was to love her. She was a kind, gentle and loving person. She will be missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to cherish her memory: her fiance, Willie Faulkner; stepfather, Jerome Robinson; daughter, LaTonya Kirby of Baltimore, MD; stepson, Willie Faulkner J. of Baltimore, MD; three grandchildren, Katrease, Marketta and Mark; five sisters, Sandra and Robin Kirby and Michelle (Larry) Player of Baltimore, MD and Delores Kirby and Angenetee (Artex) Carr of Cheraw, South Carolina; two brothers, Tony (Shirley) Kirby of Pasadena, MD and Robert (Myla) Kirby of Mt. Vernon, New York; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Kirby's family and friends. The untimely loss of a loved one can be very painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy". Please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:3,4. Also, Acts 24:15 encourages us with the resurrection hope. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
