

Peccolia Williams

May 8, 1929 - January 28, 2003

Peccolia Dunlap, beloved daughter of the late Henry Dunlap and the late Gertrude Dunlap, was born on May 8, 1929 in Anason County, North Carolina. Peccolia attended Wadesborough High School in which she later dropped out in the 11th grade to assist in taking care of her family. Peccolia later met and married Eddie Williams Sr., which resulted in the birth of Eddie Williams Jr. Later on they moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a cook at Winterlane Restaurant for many years. When the time came she moved on to work for Rosewood Hospital where she stayed for twenty-eight years. Her friends knew her as a sweet loving person. Leave it to Peccolia to take care of you as one of her own no matter who you were. She was truly loved and respected by everyone. She leaves to cherish loving memories: two sons, Percell Williams and preceding her in death, Eddie Williams Jr.; one daughter, Geraldine Williams; two granddaughters, Donnette and Sabrina; two grandsons, Sean Williams and preceding in death, Cortez (Man-Man) Bailey; one sister, Lucy Mae Hall; one brother, Jake Dunlap; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
