

Peggy Esther Elliott

November 19, 1950 - March 12, 2018

PEGGY ESTHER ELLIOTT, daughter of the late Howard and Estelle Foster, born on November 19, 1950 suddenly passed away on March 11, 2018.

Peggy was a truly fun-loving, quick-witted, hilariously funny, deeply caring sister who was known to many in her Govans community and throughout Baltimore City.

Through perseverance, determination and boundless spirituality, Peggy triumphed over many personal hardships to lead a fulfilling and thoroughly independent life characterized by travel, intellectual inquiry and concern and service to others as a volunteer at Our Daily Bread for several years.

Peggy was artistically gifted and exhibited her artwork in several local venues. She once was actively involved in the Baltimore City College Visual Arts and Performing Department as a student and valued employee. Earlier she attended Eastern High School.

She leaves to mourn: two sisters, Shirley Whitaker and Diane Elliott; brother, Larry Elliott; nephew, Ian Elliott; two nieces, Kelly Elliott and Camille Elliott; and a host of great-nieces and -nephews.

Peggy is at peace and will be sorely missed by her family and friends.

Peggy has now crossed over
Gone home to be with the Father and is at Peace
Rejoice in her happiness
