

Peggy Hartman Lewis

July 7, 1944 - October 28, 2014

The Celebration of Peggy Ann Hartman Payne Brown Lewis began on Friday, July 7, 1944. She was the 2nd daughter of the late Gladys Mae and Tarlton Hartman, Sr. She was born in Richmond, Virginia. Peggy graduated from Maggie L. Walker in 1963. She took cosmetology in high school while pursuing her dream of becoming a beautician and one day owning her own beauty salon. She was the proud owner of the Lewis Hair House until her retirement in 2005. Peggy also obtained her license as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) because her motto was "you should always have something to fall back on". She was a big advocate for education and reminding her grandchildren "to be all that they could be". She was an active member of Trinity Baptist Church where she sung in the choir. She enjoyed singing, reading, and listening to gospel music. Peggy will always be remembered as a great sister, and grandmother who was full of life who was always ready to open her heart and home to all.

Cherishing her memory are her two daughters, Marshae Antionette Payne and LaCountess Hooks; one son, Anthony Moschette Payne, Jr; son-in-law, Tyrone Hooks; three grandchildren, Brianna Jewel Richardson, Akira Jazell Richardson and Armel Anthony Payne; four sisters, Betty Pope, Sandra Peebles (Willie), Michelle White (Jimmy), Lilly Greenlee (Roye); five brothers, Tarlton Hartman, Jr. Edward Hartman, Anthony Goode, Alfred "Bonnie" Goode, and Michael Williams; a host of nieces,nephews,cousins and other relatives.

Tracy, you know I forgot all about that.

Anthony Payne Jr. - November 07, 2014 at 02:44 PM

We the staff and many of the patients at the Fresenius Dialysis Center, 800 W. Leigh St. We really miss you Ms Peggy. We all enjoyed the uplifting conversations that we had. Your insight on things was what many needed. You helped some of us to pause, and think. We pray that your journey into heaven is swift.
