The Legacy of Peggy Green Lorton

Peggy Adger Ann Green Lorton “Ms. Peggy” was born May 31, 1954 in Richmond, Virginia to Carolyn R. Armstead and the late Adger Shields. God called her home June 19, 2014. She is preceded in death by her two step-fathers, Walter Green Sr. and Elijah Armstead, as well as other special family and friends.

She attended the Richmond Public Schools system and graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School, “Class of 74”. At the age of 9 years old, Peggy has been a member of Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Church singing in various choirs. Peggy was also a missionary in her youth. She was deep in her faith and rejoined Sixth Mount Zion in 2012 with her daughter and grandson.

Peggy was a wonderful daughter, mother, sister and friends with a gentle and humble spirit. Such a sweet woman that had a “Heart of Gold”. She loved music and loved to dance. Ms. Peggy was a great provider for her two children and was a mother-figure to their friends. She was a formally employed by Hermitage and Libby Nursing Home as a CNA. She was employed at VCU in the housekeeping for over 25 years of dedicated service, with part-time jobs in between. She loved her family and was always ready to help and be a part of anything her family did. She was a wonderful caregiver.

Peggy leaves to cherish her memory two loving children, Latrice and Corey Green; three grandchildren, Clinton Jr., Corey Jr. and Joydan; beloved mother, Carolyn Armstead; four sisters, Cathy Kenney, Brenda Talbert, Vandora Shields and Valerie Shields; six brothers, Frank Green, Walter Green Jr., Leonardis Shields, Bennie Shields, Kenneth Shields and Dennis Shields, five nieces, four nephews, one sister-in-law, Marie Green; one devoted, aunt Catherine; a special devoted niece, Sharrell Talbert; her friend until the end, Kathy Robertson; most devoted Mrs. Delores Jones; devoted "Road Dogs", Felicia Brown and Carletha Sheppard; and a host of other relatives and loving friends.

“ Thinking of you my oldest sister today on Jan. 14, 2015. One year ago today carried you to hospital to see your daughter Latrice new baby girl born. Today she is 1 year old and reflecting on your smile when you first saw her for the first time. I feel your spirit with us, but I still missed your presence. Loving you always, but God Loved you more! Baby sister Brenda Green Talbert

“ My Loving Sister Peggy; you mean soooo much to me I truly can't express the loss I'm feeling! Tomorrow 9/19/14 will be 4 months of your passing & it seems like yesterday! I never will forget how hard you gripped my hands & the look on your face @ the hospital! You were special & always will be! Missing you like crazy & yes I still shred the tears but I know that's a part of healing! No more suffering sister! (RIP) I love you always, & I pray 🙏 We will see each other again one day! I know you are smiling down on Latrice b/c she did everything you requested & she did a very good job! I will keep an eye on your children & grandchildren until my time ends! 🌹 Love ❤️ You Always! Your sister Cathy!!!

“ *To the Family of Peggy Green Lorto:
I wanted to write just to share with you a few words of comfort. I know that losing someone in death is very hurtful. I have lost loved ones and what helps me is learning what Jehovah's promises are in his word the bible. John 5:28 says ' not to be amazed because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.' And then when I read at Revelation 21:4 where it says 'there will be no more death, sickness or pain' I have such a comforting feeling. So since God is a God of love we know he does not want us unhappy or sad. So we can rest assured that these promises will take place. Well I do hope these scriptures have been of comfort to you. “SAFE IN HIS ARMS”

*I'm safe in his arms
I'm sorry I had to go,
god whispered come unto me to that special place where angels sing on high, why I had to leave without one last goodbye only he knows why I'm resting comfortably in his hands, for there are none stronger than his,
Although you hurting right now, let him carry you beyond your hurt and many flowing tears!
Hold sweet memories of me deep within your heart,
my love for each one of you is stored safely inside,
For I am not really gone away, I'm smiling up in heaven, every time you think of me your face shall beam with so much pride I'm safe in my MASTERS arms just the way I always knew it would be No more sickness rest assure my wings I am HOME free!
I'll be the one floating on that beautiful white cloud,
From time to time,listen the sound of my voice will echo and linger among the crowd
I know my physical presence will be missed, but I am with my daddy JESUS in eternal bliss.
I didn't wanna leave behind all my most precious things, but the LORD said Peggy Yes, job well done here are your angel wings.
Go head they are splendid and mighty strong, see these are the one you've been patiently waiting on for so very long!
No need to try them on, God always has the prefect pair, Ya'll take care, Don't worry Im fine baby!
Imma be so safe in his arms Amen!*
