“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I have experienced the sorrow of losing a family member, a sister, a friend and have experienced the profound sense of loss that comes with that. However, I have also experienced the comfort provided by “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) If you “draw close to God he will draw close to you,” (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort as well. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God’s word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##G Winston##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Death is so very hard to come to terms with, and it leaves a gaping hole in the surviving family members. One day all families will be reunited with loved ones by means of a resurrection, because Jehovah God has promised that the dead will hear the voice of his son, Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May this wonderful promise of the resurrection, as well as your precious memories of Peggy be a great source of strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
