

Percy Lee Brown

October 2, 1941 - October 4, 2009

PERCY L. BROWN, son of Katie (Rodgers) Brown and the late Essie Brown, was born on October 2, 1941 in Grove Hill, Alabama. He departed this life on October 4, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He received his education from Wilson Hall High School in 1960. Percy was an All American football player and had a passion for sports. He came to Baltimore, Maryland as a young man searching his heart and dreams, wide-eyed and bushy-tailed, working odd jobs until he began employment at Bethlehem Steel. He met and married Maxine (Reveley) Brown. From this union they raised five children. Working at Bethlehem Steel, Percy became supervisor and mentor to many interns during his thirty years of service. He was family oriented, fun-loving and was the life of the party. Percy loved to entertain. Percy stayed at Bethlehem Steel for over thirty years, until it's closing, and was later employed by BMI until his retirement. Percy continued to work as a carpenter and landscaper, and also worked part-time for Catholic Charities. Percy lost his beloved wife Maxine in 1997 and found comfort and companionship in Marnica Marshall. He was preceded in death by Marnica Marshall and two children Wayne and Angel. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Katie Brown of AL; sons, Percy Jr. and Kevin; daughter, Deborah Branford; daughters-in-law, Charlene, Janette and Kenya; son-in-law, Gerald Branford Sr.; grandchildren, Angle, Gerald Jr., Wayne Jr., Richard, Monique and Marvin; three great-grandchildren; sisters, Lucille Young of Baltimore, MD, Joann Mickles of NY, Frances Early of Grove Hill, AL and Effie (Willie) Mitchell of Grove Hill, AL; aunt, Gladys Robinson; two uncles, James Rodgers and Henry Rodgers; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Brown's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
