“ I extend my sincere condolences to you for the loss of Mr. Lovelace. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us of a resurrection: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy...The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."-The New English Bible May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief. There is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's Word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Deepest sympathy to the Lovelace family in the passing of your loved one. A longtime member of the Southern Baptist Church and former Harford Avenue resident, I met Mr. Percy in the early 1960's through a beloved family member. It is unfortunate that I learned of his passing at this late date. He was very close to my family and his memory shall linger incessantly. He was a faithful churchmember and I know that he is now resting in glory. Blessings to all and God's peace!###imported-begin##Roger N. Evans###imported-end##
