

Percy LeRoy Marshall

November 4, 1930 - January 26, 2012

Obituary

“His charming ways and smiling face;
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kind word for each;
And died beloved by all.”

Percy Leroy Marshall was born in Richmond, Virginia on November 4, 1930. His spirit was united with Jesus Christ his Lord on January 26, 2012. He was preceded in death by a son, Herman Tyrone Marshall, his mother and father, Purcell and Margie Marshall.

He attended Richmond Public Schools. He served in the United States Army and was a Korean War veteran. Percy was a faithful member of the Cedar Street Baptist Church of God for 37 years. He faithfully served as the business manager for the Male Ushers for over 30 years. Percy was formerly employed by Sears and Roebuck as a delivery truck driver; a shipping clerk with Jenkins Book Company and retired as a foreman from the James River Paper Company. He was known and loved by many when he worked part-time for Ukrops before his health began to fail.

Our beloved Percy will be missed by all. I know that he lives in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved him. We were so fortunate to have had him in our lives and we feel empty without him.

He leaves to cherish his memory, loving and dedicated wife of 63 years, Alice Young Marshall; one son, Deacon LeRoy "Lee" Eugene Marshall (Linda); three grandchildren, Lee R. Marshall (Gale), Gregory L. Marshall, Sr., and Lynnique A. Marshall; one adopted grandson, Clifton Jones (Tracey); three great-grandchildren, David L. Marshall, Gregory L. Marshall, Jr., and Anthony R. Tennyson, Jr.; two great-great-grandchildren, Gionna T. Nelson and Royal P. Marshall; one sister, Mary V. Marshall of Pittsburgh, PA; nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members, long-time friends, and neighbors some which are very special, Christopher Arrington, Donald Foxworth, Perry Hall, William Carter, Ernest Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wright.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ To the Family: I wanted to send my deepest and sincere condolences during this unfortunate time in your lives, but I also wanted to share with your family a comforting promise that God gives in his Word the Bible about the hope of us seeing our dead loved ones again, it's found at John 5:28,29 which in part reads:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,". Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Marshall. I am sorry for your loss and hope that you find comfort and peace with the support of loved ones and dearest friends. A few months ago I too loss someone in death and was able to find comfort in the words found at Revelation 21:3,4 " With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:" Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, The former things have passed away." May these words from God's inspired word give you peace.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.
