

Perry Keitt

July 4, 1916 - September 28, 2001

God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes.” ---Revelation 7:17 Our dearly departed loved one will arrive on Heaven’s Golden Shore, as it were, with a tear-stained face, only to fuel the tender hand of God gently clearing the clouded vision with the soothing touch of his eternal comfort PERRY KEITT, devoted father, grandfather, brother and friend, adored by all, will be deeply missed. A Time To Be Born Perry Keitt, son of the late James and Sophie Keitt, was born on July 4, 1916 in Orangeburg, South Carolina. A Time To Grow Educated in the public school system in Orangeburg County. He accepted Christ as his personal Savior at the Andrews Chapel Baptist Church in South Carolina. After moving to Baltimore, he joined the Southern Baptist Church, where he was a faithful member until his illness. He was employed at Bethlehem Steel in Baltimore, Maryland for forty years until his retirement in 1976. A Time To Live Kind, patient, caring, supportive, God-fearing and always willing to lend a hand to family, friends and neighbors are just some of the words to describe our dearly departed. A Time To Die After a lengthy illness, Perry passed from labor to reward on Friday, September 28, 2001. A Time To Mourn Perry leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Leon Keitt of Orangeburg, South Carolina and Fannie Keitt Gwaltney of Baltimore, Maryland; one daughter-in-law, Carletha Keitt and one son-in-law, George Gwaltney’ two grandchildren, Kevin Keitt and Erica Gwaltney; three brothers, James and Henry Keitt of Baltimore, Maryland and Barbers Keitt of South Carolina; three sisters, Rosalee Stevens and Viola Dash of Orangeburg, South Carolina and Alease Keitt of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; two brothers-in-law, James Britt of Baltimore, Maryland and Winfield Dash of Orangeburg, South Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Ruby Mae Britt and Ida Lee Britt of South Carolina; a host of nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Perry Keitt

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May God bless you and be with you in your time of sorrow. May He give you strength and hope to meet each new tomorrow. He has said I will never leave thee nor forsake thee... Hebrew13:5 Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##Victor March##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM