

Peter Dean Jones, Sr.

February 18, 1956 - May 25, 2010

Peter Dean Jones, Sr. entered the world on February 18, 1956, the middle child of three brothers and three sisters to Ruffin, Sr. and Ann Jones. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Jane Charity (affectionately known as Mama Jane) whom he resided with for several years. At an early age, Peter joined Gilfield Baptist Church.

Peter Dean (as many of us know him) was educated in Charles City County Public Schools and began a career with Reynolds Metals shortly thereafter. Peter recently retired from Reynolds after 30 years so he could fully enjoy his favorite pastimes: fishing, hunting, bowling and most recently, gardening. Over the years, Peter has received several accolades for excellence in those pastimes. Anyone who knows Peter also knows he is a faithful Redskins fan as well.

Peter had a contagious laugh and wonderful sense of humor, which his family and friends enjoyed. He leaves to cherish his memory a doting wife, Catherine Jones; four children, LaToya, Deono, Peter, Jr. and Nicholas, three sisters, Gayle Quivers (Jesse), Beatrice Banks (James) and Valarie Brooks (James); three brothers, Ruffin Jones, Jr. Michael Jones (Yvonne) and Mallory Jones (Vickie); seven aunts, Jean Brown, Elvira Littlejohn, Geraldine Miles (Bernard), Joan Calhoun, Amanda Jefferson, Frances Jefferson and Mildred Jefferson;three uncles,Alphus Jones(Deborah),Thomas Jones and Walter Robinson;a host of nieces,nephews,cousins and friends.
