

Peter Olakiigbe

May 16, 1962 - July 31, 2009

His elder brother James Olakiigbe who calls him “aburo mi Tunji” (my brother Tunji) said he is one of the best things that ever happened to me in life and especially in this country USA. He described Peter as a loving inspiring, caring, sharing, encouraging brother that is full of wisdom and stands for what he believes is the truth because Peter always said “if you don’t stand for something, you’ll fall for anything. His other siblings, all-older than him include Chief Samuel Olakiigbe, Alhaja Kudirat Bolorunduro amongst others. All his family and relatives as the most honest, humble, selfless, and inspiring member of his family describe him. While in United States he cross-trained and was graded with Bachelor of Arts in surveying he worked in various capacities since migration to the USA. His zest for continued education and believe in ‘knowing little things about everything than knowing everything about one thin ‘ took him to nursing. During his nursing experience his coworkers including those at Manor Care Towson (his last place of employment before passing described him as committed, incomparable, compassionate, caring and loving up holding every nursing philosophy. He is an advocate for education & knowledge, he anonymously contributed to various education funds and gave financial and moral support to the needy both here in the US and in Nigeria some of whom called after his passing to acknowledge his support & inspirational efforts. Above all, he loved God and was always full of thanksgiving as evident by his membership of the Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministry (MFM) Baltimore Church and the Men’s Fellowship and his thanksgiving to God for his faithfulness to him and his family.
