

Philip W. Smith

October 8, 1920 - March 4, 2003

Philip W. Smith was born on October 8, 1920 in the Virgin Islands. He came to Baltimore, Maryland in 1948 where he met and married the late Elsie Smith, the love of his life (Sugar). He received his education in the Virgin Islands. As a young man, he loved to travel. He then became a merchant marine and traveled around the world for over forty years. In June 1979 he retired and dedicated his time to his late wife and his family. He was a kind and sweet person who was loved by everyone. He always had a smile on his face that would brighten up a room. He loved baseball. He loved life. He was loving and well loved and will be greatly missed by all. Philip leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: three daughters, Ruth E. Dorsey, Glender L. Jenkins and Margo C. Smith; four sons, Antoni Fonseca, Leo Fonseca, Phillip Smith Jr. and Otto Smith; two sons-in-law, George Dorsey and Harry Jenkins; one daughter-in-law, Mary Fonseca; fourteen grandchildren and twenty-five great-grandchildren; two devoted nephews, Larry Smith and Earl Smith Jr.; a host of other relatives and friends including devoted friend Mr. Arthur Epps.
