

Phillip Allen Payne

May 23, 1944 - July 24, 2004

Phillip Allen Payne, son of the late Edward Payne and Yvonne Howard Payne, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 23, 1944. His four sisters Brenda, Maria, Angeline and Michele pre-deceased him: one brother and one sister remain. Phillip departed this life on July 24, 2004 following a short illness. Phillip received his education at City College in Baltimore. He entered the workforce shortly thereafter and was employed by the Social Security Administration from June 14, 1966 to July 14, 1968 by the Army of the United States, Vietnam War. After that honorable tour of duty, he was employed by the United States Post Office and lastly by the City of Baltimore being terminated by illness in May 2004. Phillip was outgoing, gregarious, fun-loving and fun making at times to a clownish extent. He was loving, loyal and solicitous to his family, friends, to many neighbors and co-workers. His unique sense of humor brought roaring laughter to all. He was caring and considerate to the elderly, his peers as well as the little children. They ran to greet him upon his arrival and departure on the block. He will be greatly missed by all. He leaves to cherish his time on earth: a loving mother, Yvonne; one brother, Gregory V. Payne; one sister, Maria Chavez; one sister-in-law, Sandra Payne; one brother-in-law, Clinton Grant; four nephews, Antonio Jackson, Lamont Jiggetts, Mark V. Payne, Jr., and Gregory V. Payne, Jr.; two nieces, Tamara V. Payne and Kimberly N. Jackson; four aunts, Ruth C. Brooks, Cecelia M. Benn, Ruth Payne and Ruby Covington; two uncles, Reginald A. Howard and Bishop Lonnie Payne; a very special friend of many years,

Brenda Jordan; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.Lovingly

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To God Be the Glory for Great things He Hath done! I offer my sincere condolences to my Sister and friend Ms. Yvonne during this difficult time in your life. I know the memories of your loved-one will always be with you in your heart and mind and it is my sincere hope and prayer that in the midst of ever-changing seasons, those tender, lasting truths of your lives together never fade through out your time here on earth. May God Bless you with Love and Wisdom to share. May He give you Peace Just to know He's there. Wendy King##imported-begin##Wendy##imported-end##
