

Phillip Stephane Andrews

December 11, 1949 - November 6, 2011

PHILLIP STEPHANE ANDREWS was born on December 11, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Raymond and Beatrice Andrews Deloatch as a twin to his sister, Phyllis who has preceded him in death. On Sunday, November 6, 2011, God called Phillip from earth to glory to be reunited with his family and friends including his loving daughter, "Hope.

"Phillip attended the Baltimore City Public School System and immediately after graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, he enlisted into the United States Navy in 1971 where he served one full term for our country. At a very early age, Phillip accepted Christ as his personal Savior and often spoke about the Lord's goodness whenever we would gather together. He also understood that he must work while it was day because night was coming when he would no longer be able to work. For many years, Phillip was employed for Baltimore City, and then later worked at the Union Baptist Church Head Start Program until his health began to fail. Phillip knew he was blessed and never let his bad days outweigh the good by complaining. Instead when you saw him, his smile was so bright, it would light any corner that was dim. Phillip loved to dress and smell good, but interesting enough would keep a dollar close to his pocket

On July 26, 1980, Phillip was joined in holy matrimony to Senora Andrews and together they spent many great and loving years. Phillip leaves to cherish fond memories; wife, Senora; children from a previous marriage with Rachel Mae Coven, Crystal and Phillip Jr.; stepdaughter, Shavonne; mother-in-law, Josephine Williams; sisters, Emma, LaRue, Romaine, Gladys, Lolita and Dionne; brothers, Clyde and McKinley; sons-in-law, Robert and Steve; daughter-in-law, April; brothers-in-law, Wayne and Gene; sister-in-law, Carolyn; grandchildren, Alexis, Jordan, Brea, Jaylan, Christian, Tiffany, Robert Jr., Jasmyn, Eric and Sean; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends including, Linda Harvey and family, and the staff of Forest Manor Nursing Facility.
