“ I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the family for the loss of your loved one. May the God of all comfort help you to get through this time of grief, and give you the strength to carry on. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 tells us that Jehovah God comforts us through all of our tribulations. One day he will reunite us with our loved ones in the promised resurrection. John 5:28,29 tells us: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." So one day Phillip will live again. Please find much comfort in the scriptures to help you to cope at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My father was a incredible person who touched many with his smile, his kindness, his compassion, his art and his voice. I was raised not to have regrets and I entrusted God to take my dad home without any regrets and hope he left this world without any. I will hold his memory close and his spirit closer. I love you daddy.##imported-begin##Tiffany-Nicole Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
