“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of your sudden loss. Losing a loved one in death is devastating for a family regardless of the circumstances, and my heart goes out to you. one day God promises that death will be a thing of the past, and our loved ones will never have to depart from us again. 1st Cor 15:26 makes this wonderful promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then God will remember our loved ones, and will bring them back to life. The faithful man Job in the bible asked this question, "if an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? Then he said, "You will call, and I myself will answer you. "For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes God yearns to restore the life force back to those who have died, because it is his desire that all obtain everlasting life. John 3:16. One day all sorrow will be past, and their will be peace at last. 2nd Peter 3:13. May you find much comfort and strength in God's promises.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Isaiah 25:8 lovingly tells us that one day our Creator will get rid of our enemy death.(See also 1 Corinthians 15:26) There is much hope for our loved ones who have died. Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
