

Phillip E. Mickey

January 27, 1952 - June 16, 2013

PHILLIP EUGENE MICKEY, son of the late William and Sara Mickey, was born on January 27, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 16, 2013 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He spent two years in the United States Army. He began this journey in September of 1972 until September of 1974. He then began working for Johns Hopkins in 1976 and continued for thirty-five years until his retirement in July of 2012. He met and fell in love with the late Ophelia Lawrence and out of this union a daughter was born, Linnea. "Phil," as he was also known by family and friends, made friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved him. He was a true friend and devoted father. He leaves to mourn: his daughter, Linnea Mickey; one granddaughter, Nakiya Covington; two brothers, Paul Mickey and William "Billy" Mickey; close cousin, Denise Mitchell; aunts, nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

DADDY There is no doubt that you stood your ground. I can never forget how you were always around, for every occasion, recital, birthday and graduation, you, my Daddy, never missed one celebration. For this Reason I'll never say goodbye. I would call to check up on you, and no matter how you felt, you would say you were doing good. Without a doubt you were very strong. This time around the pain was deep, you were tired and it's time to meet our Saviour Christ, who will love you and greet your dedicated heart and loving soul. So, I know you loved us and cared a lot. This is why you could never be forgot. "Alright Then" was how we said goodbye, so now, no more tears. I know you're flying high. I Love You Daddy Love, Linnea Mickey “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
