

Phillip Nathaniel Minor

November 11, 1953 - April 27, 2003

Phillip Nathaniel Minor, son of the late Phillip Woodson Minor and Gloria Natalie Oliver minor, was born on November 11, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 27, 2003 after a brief illness. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and was a graduate of Edmondson High School. He received his spiritual training at Shiloh Christian Community Church Sunday School, under the leadership of Rev. George W. Baynard, and at an early age he accepted Christ. He was employed full time at Exxon for over ten years. He enjoyed swimming, cars and animals. He was a loud, outspoken individual who loved life. Butch made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He adored and loved his two daughters and grandsons. He leaves to mourn: a devoted mother, Gloria Minor; two loving daughters, Tiffany and Ericka; three grandsons, Terrell Jr., Tion and Damon (DJ); a godson, Rakeem Parker; and a very special friend, Mrs. Clarina Nelson; cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ It is not a day that goes by without me thinking about you. You were my father the only I will ever have and now you are gone. It's so hard not being able to call Gloria and ask for you. I miss fussing with you and telling me what I cant do. Now I have to be strong for myself and Gloria which is very hard. Things will get better because now I know that your are really watching over me. I miss you and will always love you. Your daughter, Ericka##imported-begin##Ericka##imported-end##

“ I am one of Phillip's neighbors who recently loss my mother in March. So without a doubt I know how you must be feeling right now. Your loved one was an asset to our community. He was always cheerful; always respectful; and cared about the people where he lived. We will miss his laughter and his smile.##imported-begin##Esther Steptoe##imported-end##
