“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Phyllis Ann Starke. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to and the pain of losing someone you love can be overwhelming; I too know that pain. May you find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus 'swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8)##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
