“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Bigger's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ *To: The Bigger & Harris Family
No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him. 1 Corinthians 2:9 NIV
The journey into God's presence requires a departure, and that brings sorrow for those who remain. I am so sorry for your loss. But what joy to think of Phyllis arrival into the very arms of a loving Heavenly Father.
With Caring Thoughts of Sympathy, Cousin Veronica Davis Williams.*

“ I didn't know Phyllis personally, but my heart goes out to your family. Losing a loved one is the most difficult event we go through in life, but one day sickness and death will be no more and you will be able to behold Phyllis's dear face once again. John 5:28,29. May the sure hope of the ressurection bring you much comfort in the days ahead.
