

Phyllis Blake Minor

June 18, 1931 - July 23, 2002

Phyllis Blake-Minor daughter of the late Eunice and Hubert Blake was born June 18, 1931 in Jamaica, WI. She departed from us on July 23, 2002. She received her formal education in Jamaica before immigrating to the United States in the 1950's and settling in Brooklyn, New York. She worked in this country initially as a Nurses Aide. In 1978, she changed careers and became a licensed Cosmetologist as well as a Home Care attendant. She relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and retired in 1997. She gave birth to two sons: Michael Anthony in 1964 and Gary Francis in 1969. Phyllis was known as a devoted mother, family member and friend. Always ready to care for a sick relative or friend; watch over a neighbor's child; or lend an ear-she could always be counted on to come through. She believed that faith in God and hard work would always overcome any obstacle. She is survived by her sons Michael and Gary; brothers, Sebert, Selvin, Rupert and Watney; grandchildren, Mathew and Ryan; daughter-in-law, Yolanda; best friend, Patsy; and numerous relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
