“ I would like to send my sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs Braswell. One day all tragedies such as violence, sickness, and death will be gone forever. 1st Cor 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Isn't that a wonderful hope to cling to? Also the bible speaks of a resurrection for those who have died, and that is brought out at Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29 which tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May the thought of one day seeing Phyllis again bring much comfort to your hearts, and help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ Robbie, My heart goes out to you! Your mom was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed. She surely loved you with all of her heart, you could not have asked for a better mother. Keep all of your memories of your mom in your heart and you will carry her with you wherever you go.##imported-begin##Michelle Moore##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy during this very difficult time. I would also like to leave you with a thought from God's Word that always gives me comfort at times like these. It is taken from Revelation the 21st chapter, verse 4. It says that "God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and that death will be no more." What a comforting time to reflect on. May you take the time to think deeply and reflect on this wonderful future prospect. I am very confident that it will give you much comfort.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
