

Phyllis E. Hynes

November 12, 1936 - June 13, 2003

Phyllis Marsh Hynes, beloved daughter of the late Spencer March Sr. and Rebecca Kearney Marsh, departed this life on Friday, June 13, 2003 at her home 500 East 27th Street in Baltimore, Maryland. Phyllis was born on November 12, 1936 in Greensboro, North Carolina. Phyllis was educated in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Public Schools and later moved to New York in 1955. She attended City College in Manhattan, New York. Phyllis was one of six children. Her brother, David Marsh, preceded her in death in 2000. She was a member of The Blessed Baptist Church of God, where she served on the choir. She was a member of The Elk Club IBPOE of W #773 Elizabeth, New Jersey. She worked as a Bookkeeper and a Teacher's Assistant in the Public Schools of Baltimore, Maryland. Phyllis was united in marriage to Gregory Hynes in 1986 soon after moving to Baltimore. From this union Phyllis and Gregory adopted a son, Antoine Hynes, whom Phyllis was raising. She was loved and respected by her family and friends. She was a soft spoken, kind and loving person. Phyllis will be greatly missed by all. Phyllis leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Antoine Hynes of Baltimore, MD; one daughter, Chapel Glenn of Baltimore, MD; one granddaughter Emani Glenn of Baltimore, MD; her ex-husband Gregory Hynes of Baltimore, MD; one brother Spencer Marsh of Brooklyn, NY; three sisters, Delores Scott of Rochester NY, Yvonne Smith of Richmond, VA, and Merrily Marsh of Rochester, NY; one brother-in-law Wallace Smith of New Jersey; two goddaughters, Darlene and Celeste of Queens, NY; a special friend James

Roy and his mother Geneva Roy of Baltimore, MD and James Roy's three daughters, Tyra, Donna, and Dionne who were like her children; one uncle Ernest Kearney and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ To the family of Phyllis E. Hines, We are sorry about your loss. We all find encouragement in the Bible at John 5:28,29. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. I hope that your family finds encouragement in these fine words.##imported-begin##joseph hill##imported-end##
