

Phyllis V. Felipa-Glass

June 26, 1959 - November 29, 2018

Phyllis Vanessa, affectionately known as Nussy born to Irene Porter and James Bryant on June 26, 1959. She transitioned from this life to eternal life on November 29, 2018 after a lengthy illness but, not without her family by her side.

Vanessa was highly intelligent as she received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and she later attended Coppin State College. Special Education was her major and passion. She was always seeking to help someone other than herself.

She was employed at Tate Access Floors from February 29, 1988 until she became ill in 2018. There she met a host of friends who later became her family. She often talked about work family and the laughter shared. June 7, 1998, Vanessa made a quality decision to commit her life to God. She said it was the best decision she had made in her life. Her church home was Power of Faith Evangelistic Church, under the pastoral direction of Bishop Michael Smith and Pastor Barbara Smith.

Vanessa always loved children. She desired to love and care for them.

Lovingly, she adopted her son, DeShawn Jackson when he was very young. There she began a family of her own. Later she met and married Tony Glass and they blended their family together February 14, 2005.

Having a family someone to love was her passion in life. She worked tirelessly to build a home of love and security for her family. Her heart and doors were open to all who were in need.
