“ My prayers and condolences goes to the family and friends. I have known Phyllis since I was about 12 years old. Our families lived in the 37 hundred block of Reisterstown Road. I remember when we both purchased a Ford Cougar... She was a very sweet, special person and LOVED her family.

God bless everyone and keep the Phyllis' family in your heart and prayers.

Sincerely and Peace,

Phyllis A. Gaines

Sending our Love and Prayers to Stephanie and Nae Nae. I have so many wonderful memories of Ms. Phyllis. When all of you moved to Derby Manor Drive...I was so happy to have a new friend named Stephanie to play with. We would play outside for hours and sleepover at each other's houses. Ms. Phyllis was always there cooking us good food or just making us laugh with some of her funny stories. I always thought see was the "Cool Mom". I have moved away now but I will always treasure those memories. Stephanie, Nae Nae & Family keep those wonderful memories in your heart always. You have an Angel now watching over you all now!!

Love you,

Marsha, Keith & Family
