

Phyllis Marie Anderson

April 12, 1935 - January 2, 2010

The Obituary Phyllis Marie Miller-Anderson The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms... ~Deuteronomy 33:27 Phyllis Marie Miller-Anderson, the youngest daughter of the late Reverend William J. Miller and the late Reverend Marguerite Miller. At the age of 74, Phyllis departed this life Saturday morning, January 2, 2010, at her home in Mechanicsville, Virginia, after an extended illness. She was preceded in death by seven siblings, William Jerome, John, Amos and Aurelia Miller, Gladys Holmes, Bernice Cannon and Virginia Robinson. Phyllis was born in Horntown, Virginia on April 12, 1935. She was educated in the public schools of Accomack County, Virginia. She later attended Maryland State College in Princess Anne, Maryland. While in college, she was the organist for the St. James-Unionville United Methodist Church Charge in Pocomoke, Maryland. Eventually, Phyllis moved to Richmond, Virginia, where she met and married Alphonso "Al" Slade. Soon after they were married, they joined Cedar Street Memorial Baptist Church of God in Richmond, Virginia, which was then under the leadership of Dr. Benjamin W. Robertson. Until she retired, Phyllis was employed as an accountant at United States Tobacco Company in Richmond. In June 1979, her husband Al departed this life. Years later, Phyllis became the wife of Theodore "Andy" Anderson. Andy passed in 1989. She leaves to celebrate her life and to mourn her passing all who knew and loved her especially her sister, Ella Mae Cannon and several nieces and nephews. After the darkness the daylight shines through. After the shower the rainbow is new. After life's heartache there comes from above the peace and comfort of God's healing love. Author Unknown

“ Please accept my sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow of losing a love one in death. Jehovah God promises that this sorrow will one day be no more. We all look forward to when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3,4) May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalms 55:22).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all long for the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##
