

Phyllis P. Williams

December 13, 1942 - April 1, 2006

PHYLLIS ANN WILLIAMS was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 13, 1942 to the late Phillip and Annie Holly. God sent His angels to give her an escort from this earth to His heavenly home on April 1, 2006. Phyllis was educated in the Baltimore City school system, where she graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1961. She started working at Western Electric in 1963 and continued to work there until 1984, when the plant moved out of Maryland. On September 26, 1964, she married Lawrence Paul Williams at St. Gregory the Great Roman Catholic Church. They were blessed with forty-one years of marriage. She was a dedicated, loving and caring wife. Their marriage was a model of commitment. She enjoyed reading and talking on the phone. Her most enjoyable hobby was gardening. Her gardening included not only flowers for beautification, but also her bounty of vegetables she shared with her family, neighbors, and friends. She enjoyed cooking and even went so far as to make homemade pickles. Whenever you visited her, she would not let you go home hungry. She had a very close and loving relationship with her nephews. She was considered the "other mother" to her nieces and nephews. Phyllis was the matriarch of her family, as well as her friends. Phyllis was always willing to share everything with anyone who was in need. She supported everyone in all of their endeavors. She encouraged strong family ties. She leaves in the trust of God's hands: her devoted husband, Lawrence Paul Williams; one daughter-in-law, Vera Williams; one granddaughter, Samantha Williams; four brothers, Bernard, Ronald, Phillip and Clifton Holly; one sister, Elaine Johnson; seven brothers-in-law, Kirk Johnson, Vernon, Ronald, Iglehart, Michael, Sarsfield and Wesley Williams; five sisters-in-law, Charlene, Debra and Sharon Holly, Jean Jett and Gail Williams. She was preceded in death by her stepson, Jeffrey Williams and two brothers-in-law, Irvin and Donald Williams. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Phyllis will always be lovingly remembered.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ May you have peace and comfort from the one who loves us so very much, Jehovah God, who sustains us in our sufferings. I am so sorry your family had to experience the pain of losing a loved one. May it help you to know that death was not his purpose for humankind, and he has promised to eliminate this enemy from our lives forever. Isaiah 25:8 tells us that he will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. May your wonderful memories sustain you, as we await the joyous ressurection to take place, then we can see the dear faces of our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ The lost of a loved one has an overwhelming impact on all and especially the immediate family. The pain and suffering alone is very hard to bear and no one should ever have to experience such a dark and sad time in life. However it seems to be no escape no matter the cause. I extend my deepest sympathy and thoughts of encouragement from the one who can remove such pain and grieving sorrow from the human family, that one is the Almighty Jehovah God. Jehovah is saddened over how life has turned due to the course of actions of our first parents Adam and Eve. However, because Jehovah is a loving God he has promised the offspring's of Adam and Eve a way out. In the near future He said death will be no more and the things that causes death will be no more according to Rev 21:3-4. This promise of life has always been Jehovah God's purpose for mankind according to Titus 1:2. This is a promise he can't lie about. Hebrews 6: 18 states of Jehovah God, it is impossible for him to lie. That is an encouraging hope. Also for those who suffer with all sorts of illness Isaiah 33:24 says it will come a time no one on the earth will say they are sick and the lame will walk Isaiah 35:6, the blind will see, Isaiah 35:5 and the greatest promise of them all will be when Jesus Christ will call all those in the memorial tombs to come out. Yes our loved ones will be blessed with a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28-29 Yes Jehovah will resurrect those back to life to enjoy everlasting life with all their families and friends Ps 37: 10 states the meek will inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Ps 37:29. It's truly understandable since our heavenly father created the earth for man to live according to Isaiah 45:18. We can truly trust in God's written word because nothing he says will not return without results Isaiah 55:11. So we can dry our eyes due to the tears of sadness but tears of joy will flow when we can once again enjoy the lives of our loved ones temporarily lost to death.##imported-begin##B

“ My condolences on the loss of Ms. Williams. May you find strength and comfort in God's word recorded at Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The time in which these words will be fulfilled is near.##imported-begin##Debbie S.##imported-end##

“ Dear Paul and Family: We are deeply saddened and shocked by the sudden loss of Phyllis. We will always remember her as our spunky, outspoken "neighbor" and friend who so willingly shared her blessings with others. We can only imagine the beautiful gardens she is creating now. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Richard & Linda Gourley##imported-end##
