

Phyllis S. Johnson

February 28, 1967 - July 3, 2007

Phyllis Johnson was born on February 28, 1967 in Halifax County, North Carolina. On the evening of July 3, 2007, Phyllis's life was suddenly cut short. Phyllis was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for several companies as a receptionist with her last job at UPS. "Puddin " as she was affectionately nicknamed by her late grandmother was known for having a bubbly spirit and kind heart. Her son always said, "Mommy never met a stranger ". She also had a special love and compassion for her little cousins and her nieces and nephews. In June 1996 Phyllis met and married the late Bryan Johnson. Her memory will be cherished by: a loving mother, Maggie Caple; stepfather, John Caple; two loving and devoted sons Ceasar and Sidney Neville, three sisters, Brenda Neville, Barbara Bailey and Phillipa Brown; two brothers, Robert and Anthony Neville; mother-in-law, Octavia Pompey-Johnson; two brothers-in-law, Allen Bailey and Christopher Johnson; six step sisters; five step brothers; ten aunts, six uncles; four nieces, eight nephews; and a host of relatives and friends.
