

Phyllis Smith

March 15, 1937 - September 8, 2018

Phyllis Crews Smith, the youngest of eight children of the late Booker and Bessie Crews, was born on March 15, 1938 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. She departed this life on September 8, 2018 after a brief illness.

She received her education in the Public Schools of Chatham, and Gretna, Pittsylvania, Virginia. She went to Washington, D.C. to live with her older sister Elizabeth as a young teenager. She later moved to Baltimore City and worked at a number of jobs, including baby-sitting for Judge Carl Bacharach and his wife Irene. This evolved into a lifetime friendship between Phyllis and the Bacharach family.

She also had a long enduring friendship with the late Maggie Hollomon, who was once her landlady. Phyllis later worked in housekeeping at the Master Mates & Pilots Institute in Linthicum, MD; she retired after twenty years of service.

She married Linwood J. Smith, and out of this union was born a daughter Lynn; and later a granddaughter Allison.

Phyllis made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend, and she devoted herself to her family.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Linwood J. Smith; daughter, Lynn M. Smith; granddaughter, Allison; brother and sister-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
