

Phyllis A. Taylor

September 12, 1949 - September 29, 2018

PHYLLIS ANN TAYLOR was born September 12, 1949 in Brunswick, Georgia, to the late Ann Rudeen Poindexter. Phyllis was the eldest of five children, reared by her maternal Grandmother Charlie Mae Swinton. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior later in life and believed she was a child of God.

Phyllis attended Baltimore City Public Schools and worked for North west Healthcare Center as a Dietitian Aide and Cook for over 25 years. Previously she was a devoted homemaker to her companion and children.

Phyllis married the late Charles Bennett in 1967 and out of that union they had one child the late Sylvia Denise Taylor. During the summer of 1975, Phyllis was introduced to the love of her life the late Albert Smith by the late Harry Poindexter her stepfather and from that union came two children Crystal and Courtney. Additionally, Phyllis gained special bonds with Albert's children Albert T. Smith, Bonita Porter, Gregory Smith, Priscilla Sanchez. Together they celebrated 42 wonderful years.

Phyllis enjoyed shopping, gardening, sewing, crocheting, playing music, and chatting with her best girl friends on the phone. Also, Phyllis loved to cook her famous pig feet every Friday that kept friends and family coming back for more. Phyllis' smart wit and honest demeanor kept everyone on their toes. She loved her family and made sure their needs were met. She will sincerely be missed by everyone.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her two daughters, Courtney and Crystal; two son-in-laws, Kenneth Gwee and William Cunningham; one sister, Velma Wilkins, three brothes, Edmond Taylor, Terry Taylor, and Hubert Coleman; one brother-in-law, Marvin Wilkins; and three sister-in-laws, Claudine Taylor, Gloria Taylor and Princess Coleman; seven grandchildren, Jessica Quince, Larry Taylor, Jr., Kevin Cunningham, Kayla Cunningham, Austin Gwee and Gabrielle Gwee. She also leaves behind three great-grandchildren, A'imayi Pinder, A'alayna and A'yden Tyson and a host of other relatives and friends.
