

Phyllis L Thomas

October 8, 1942 - August 17, 2023

Phyllis Lorraine Thomas was born on October 8, 1942 to the late Mary Elizabeth and Albert Jerome Hayes, Sr. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Deborah Lorraine Hall and brothers, Charles Hayes and Albert Jerome Hayes, Jr.

She began her journey in Baltimore, MD completing her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Phyllis was employed for thirty-one years by the Federal Government at the Social Security Administration. She was committed to supporting others as was evidenced by her membership with the American Red Cross, the local Senior Center as well as a NAACP volunteer.

Phyllis united in the Christian fellowship of Concord Baptist Church on April 11, 1999 under the pastorate of Dr. Matthew L. Jones. She committed her life and service to Christ at Concord and served faithfully on the Senior Ushers Ministry until her health no longer permitted her to do so. She enjoyed standing on her post at the doors of the church as well as marching with the ushers during the offering.

During her lifetime, she enjoyed bowling, walking, reading and playing computer games.

Phyllis loved and enjoyed life to the fullest and then the Lord opened heaven's gates and called her home in the early morning of Thursday, August 17, 2023.

As she takes her place in heave among beloved family who preceded her there, she leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory, her granddaughter, Mikheasa Lorraine Johnson; grandson, Glen Joseph Thomas; great-granddaughter, Brittanie Banks; great-grandsons, Marquist Johnson and Farrell Barnes; one sister, Catherine Lundy Kea (Henderson); three nephews, Albert J. Hayes II (Lorri), Delonte J. Lundy, Kevin H. Kea (Angela); four nieces, Maria L. Samuels (Kenneth), Jizen C. Hayes, Margaret A. Pruitt (Reginald), Catherine Ann Hayes and a host of great-nieces, great nephews and other relatives and many friends.
