

Phyllis Ann Twyman-Wilson

March 6, 1949 - March 31, 2019

Phyllis Ann Twyman-Wilson, 70, of Richmond went to be with the Lord on Sunday, March 31, 2019. Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents, Vashti Twyman and Wallace Sr.; brothers, Wallace Jr., David Twyman; sisters, Shirley Hemby and Linda Twyman.

Phyllis was born March 6, 1949 in Richmond, Virginia. A graduate of Armstrong High School. Phyllis knew early she wanted to be an educator after graduating from Virginia Union University with a Masters in Education. Phyllis went on to teach in the Texas and Richmond Public School System. After more than 35 years of dedicated service, Phyllis retired from teaching and providing love to her students.

She was a long-time faithful, devoted member of Refuge Temple following in her mother's footsteps by cooking in the church kitchen. She especially enjoyed mentoring to the youth of the church and community. Always a faithful servant, Phyllis loved sharing the word of Yahweh. She also enjoyed participating in Vacation Bible School, singing in the Unity Choir and holding a position on the finance committee.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted son, Calvin Twyman (Karen); grandsons, Miles and Samuel Twyman; two sisters-in-law, Thelma Twyman and Pam Twyman and many family and friends, among them one devoted cousin, Lyrcine Holmes

Our beloved will always be cherished
but never forgotten.

“ RIP Phyllis Twyman. I attended Refuge Temple many years and sang in the choir together. We had fun at Lakeside Amusement park in Roanoke Virginia many years ago. She drove her car at that time. Yahweh bless you
