

Phyllis Wallace

October 28, 1966 - August 18, 2014

Phyllis Wallace, daughter of Herbert L. Wallace (Deed) and Trella M. Wallace, was born on October 28, 1960. She departed this life peacefully on August 18, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

Phyllis received her education in Baltimore City, graduating from Dunbar Senior High School Class of 1978

. After college, Phyllis held numerous positions in the restaurant business. She was always a dedicated and devoted worker - nothing but praises from her bosses.

Phyllis had a personality that was like no other. She could approach strangers and before you knew it, friends. Her smile could light up a room. Phyllis loved dancing, even her sickness could not keep her from dancing.

As a child Phyllis joined St. Vincent De Paul Church. As a dedicated Catholic, she attended Mass faithfully but she also visited other churches where she made lots of friends.

She leaves to mourn: mother, Trella M. Wallace; sister, Rita Bacote (three sisters preceded her in death, Joyce Wallace, Trella (Buttons) Wallace-Jackson and Rona Brooks); four brothers, Clark

Howell, Herbert L. Wallace Jr., Phillip Wallace (her twin) and Bruce Wallace; two sisters-in-laws, Mary Howell and Walinda Wallace; a host of nieces and nephews (special niece, Makayla Davis), other relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
