

Polly Mae Ore

December 1, 1923 - November 29, 2004

Polly Mae Ore was born on December 1, 1923 in Beaufort County, North Carolina, daughter of the late Austin and Rosetta Graham. She departed this life on November 29, 2004 after lengthy illness. Polly Mae received her education at P.S. Jones High School in Washington, North Carolina. After high school, she had her first child, Martha Williams. She then married Jessie Ore, Jr. and out of that union was born Reginald Ore. Polly Mae attended Freemount Freewill Baptist Church and Howard Hill Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend J.K. Douglas. She was a faithful and devoted member of the churches and served on the choir and usher boards. Polly Mae worked at Walker's Dry Cleaners in Washington, North Carolina for over thirty years. She also worked as a part-time seamstress and later became the full-time seamstress for Walker's Dry Cleaners. Polly Mae spent the later years of her life in Baltimore, Maryland, closer to family and friends. She joined the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church until she was no longer able to attend. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Martha Williams; her sister, Beatrice Phillips; two brothers, Charles and Alfred Graham; her aunt, Daisy Gorham; ten grandchildren, Wilhelmina Brown (Elio), Denise Bailey, George Graham, Felicia Thomison, Michael Grimm, Cassandra Putney, Michelle McKay (Ronnie Hugh), Jamie Griffin, Tunicia Wilson and Tracy Blount-Oden; twenty-five great-grandchildren, seven great-great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. All will remember Polly Mae's love for baking, crocheting and making quilts.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The World's Greatest Grandmother: I can't even find the words to say. So I will sum it all up and in four words, "I LOVE YOU TREMENDOUSLY". I know now that you are in a better place and you are not alone. Say hello, to Papa Jesse, my Daddy and Grandma Etta. Let them know that I'm doing well and they would be very proud of me. Thank you for always being there for me- you were great. Thanks for helping to raise me, I didn't turn out to bad; to have been a spoiled brat. It's so many things that one takes for granted--I look forward to seeing you again someday. Rest in Peace! Tunicia###imported-begin##Tunicia Wilson###imported-end##

“ To the family of Polly Mae Ore, my deepest condolences on the death of your loved one. May your memories of her bring you comfort and happiness. The bible has words of comfort. At John 5:28,29, it speaks about a time those in God's memory will hear his voice and rise again. This is a sure promise for at Hebrews 6:18, it tell us that it is impossible for God to lie.###imported-begin##Albert Washington###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
